

Italian
Summer Salad

Garth McCollgan

“Mediterranean magic!”

“As the temperature rises and we venture outdoors to dine al fresco, it’s simply divine to tuck into a light and tasty, sun-caressed salad. This week we’re going Italian, which means plenty of colourful ingredients and lashings of olive oil goodness. Most delicious of all is its pure simplicity – made in minutes, it leaves you more time to soak up more rays!”

Italian Summer Salad

Serves 2-3 for lunch, or 6 as a side-salad

Ingredients

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 1 jar Grilled Artichokes, drained               | 2 tbs Red Pesto                            |
| 1 jar Grilled Peppers, drained and cut in two   | 3 tbs Evoo Extra Virgin Olive Oil          |
| ½ jar Sundried Tomatoes, drained and cut in two | 1 Granny Smith apple, diced but not peeled |
| 125g Gorgonzola Piccante, crumbled              |  |

Method

1. Mix the cheese, artichokes, peppers and tomatoes together in a bowl.
2. Add red pesto and olive oil; toss gently.
3. Pop into individual salad bowls; sprinkle on the diced apple.
4. Serve with tear-and-share garlic bread.

Delicious Tipp

"Not too keen on Gorgonzola? Well, this recipe works just as well with our very own Tipperary Blue. Give it a try – it's amazing!"

"Another classic from the Casablanca Valley, where grapes are cooled by Pacific Ocean breezes and ripened beneath a beating sun, this is a crisp and zesty white, perfect with salads, seafood or spicy dishes."

ABV: 13.5%.

"Simply delicious Summer value!"

"When the sun comes out, the last thing you want to do is slave over a hot stove. That's why it's well worth trying my made-in-minutes Mediterranean mix. Aldi has everything you need to bring this Summer classic together, all for a price that will brighten up your day!"
